

CORNELIUS & ASSOCIATES

Dale McKee

*Senior Partner,
Cornelius & Associates*

"Cornelius & Associates has been an integral part of our team, teaching us key leadership principles as well as serving as executive coach through times of transition to new leadership era..."

Don Ryerson, Human Resource Manager
Pfizer-Capsugel Pharmaceuticals

Facilitating organizational change, leading diverse groups to consensus, and encouraging leadership and personal effectiveness are just a few of the many skills Dale McKee offers his clients. Dale is a widely recognized and accomplished seminar leader, facilitator, trainer, consultant and speaker. He offers a unique combination of practical skills and tools, a wealth of real-world experience, and a warm and engaging style to his clients.

Dale is senior partner at Cornelius & Associates. He has worked with over 100 organizations since 1989, including a number of Fortune 500 companies, to help them achieve desired business results through leadership and team development. He was formerly an Assistant Vice President with Colonial Life & Accident Insurance Company where his record in developing human resources programs won him recognition and honors.

Dale is currently focused on the fact that responding to today's organizational challenges calls for leadership, not management. He is the architect of the Essential Leadership Skills program as one of the solutions to that challenge. He is also the developer and author of the powerful You, Unlimited personal effectiveness program.

With a superb reputation across many industries, Dale has worked with a wide variety of organizations, including Energizer, GE Appliance, Colonial Life, Smurfit Stone Container, M&M Mars, and AgFirst Farm Credit.

"His insight in communications, leadership and managing has yielded almost immediate results ...I believe Dale McKee has positioned us well for the challenges that almost universally occur in today's ever changing business environment."

Bill Spigener, CEO, AgSouth Farm Credit
